

Callistemon and Calothamnus. These are plants that have been recognized in California, but have not been as well tested in the Gulf States, although some species seem more than promising within rather restricted areas.

The botanical determinations were made and the nomenclature determined by the late H.C. Skeels,¹ who had general supervision of this inventory.

KNOWLES A. RYERSON,
Principal Horticulturist, in Charge.

DIVISION OF FOREIGN PLANT INTRODUCTION,
Washington, D.C., December 20, 1933.

¹ Died Jan. 3, 1934.